Directions for Completing the Agency Self-Assessment (Form SS1)

The Agency Self-assessment includes a review and summarization of all of the agency's efforts to achieve the Cal-SAFE program goals.

The Agency Self-assessment guides a program by: examining all program goals and relating them to the components of the program operations; determining its strengths and areas that need improvement; and establishing program improvement plans for the coming year.

The Agency Self-assessment is submitted with the Continuing Funding Application due March 3, 2003.

Agency Self-Assessment Procedures

- Use this form to summarize and record activities, trends or patterns that are occurring in your program by studying the Desired Results Developmental Profile Summary of Findings, the Parent Survey Summary of Findings, and the Environmental Rating Scale Action Plan results, the Coordinated Compliance Review Document self study, the narrative and certifications of the agency's application for funding and information from data entered into GradStar.
- Based on the information gathered, describe the objectives (activities, services, policies, materials purchased, curriculum, professional development, schedules, use of space, student-staff and child-staff interaction, outreach, parent involvement) employed to meet each goal. The objectives are designed to support the program in moving towards achieving the overarching goals.
- Identify the expected outcome, the degree to which the objectives have been met and the the person who took leadership.
- List any follow-up that may be needed in order to reach the Cal-SAFE goals. Enter a completion date for each follow-up item.
- Summarize the program findings of what you identified as needing improvement.
